This matter is before the court on the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [37]. The parties have agreed to a plea in principle and defense counsel is waiting to confer with his client upon release from outpatient treatment. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [37] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for December 31, 2018, is continued to February 4, 2019.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and February 4, 2019, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: December 21, 2018.

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
